

Built to Last

Southern Crossings' gate frames are very strong. They are constructed of 14 gauge rectangular steel tubing. They are assembled utilizing a patented fabrication method which results in an extremely strong non-sagging gate.

Materials

All materials, as well as the hardware we provide, are fabricated of high strength steel. All gate parts and members are CNC laser cut and drilled to provide a precise fit that enhances strength, eliminates sag, and ensures ease of installation.

